

Calling all child health leaders and administrators!

We need your help to establish a key set of quality indicators that are important to young people and caregivers and applicable and adaptable in all health settings.

Who can participate?

Community agency leaders, managers, directors, VPs/executives, policy makers and other decision-makers in child health

Why participate?

Improve transition care
Provide your expert opinion
Join a national multi-stakeholder initiative

Participate in three online sessions consisting of two surveys and a discussion board over a six-week period

All participants will receive compensation
